MUSEUM LECTURE Wednesday, November 20, 8:15 p.m.

Dr. Roman Vishniac's color film: WATURE -- THE WELLSPRING OF CREATIVITY will be exhibited at 8:15 Wednesday evening, November 20 in the auditorium of The Cleveland Museum of Art. Dr. Vishniac will lecture on the film's subject and how it was produced.

The producer's education focused on biology and art with specific research in cytology and far eastern art and his films of natural life, including extraordinary microscopic studies, have been cited as providing insight and stimulus to the artist as well as the scientist. This film is highly recommended for art students.
